MEET HOWIE

HORNET

NOW THAT WE ARE FORMALLY INTRODUCED, I'M RARING TO

THROUGH THE 1945

HOLL

THOMAS CARR HOWE HIGH

HOW YOU around. How about joining me on a personally conducted tour, through our nest, the city's newest high school, seven years young? We'll visit the classrooms, meet the "Joes and Janes" and the teachers, cheer our fighting Hornets to victory, and take part in all the "extra" things at Howe—so, come on, let's have some fun and start buzzing . . .

TOPPER

CHOOL, INDIANAPOLIS

THIS IS OUR NEST . . .

Our beautiful nest, on the crest of Violet Hill, is a beehive of activity from September till June!

. . THESE ARE OUR HONORED ONES

THOMAS CARR HOWE

"When Irvington was still a small college town, Dr. Thomas Carr Howe, for whom Howe High School was named, was president of Butler University and a prominent citizen of Irvington," explains Barbara Brown to George Spradling and Karl Stoneking, as they admire his portrait.

CHARLES MACKAY SHARP

Mr. Charles MacKay Sharp is our first principal. Throughout his seven years at Howe, he has been popular with the students because of his friendliness and fairness. Glenn Shepherd and Bob Baker pause before his picture which hangs in the library.

THREE R'S

Readin', Ritin', and Rithmetic take up most of our school time. Take a peek at pages 8-13.

HOWEITES

Everyone at Howe, from the freshman to the senior, finds his picture on pages 14-41.

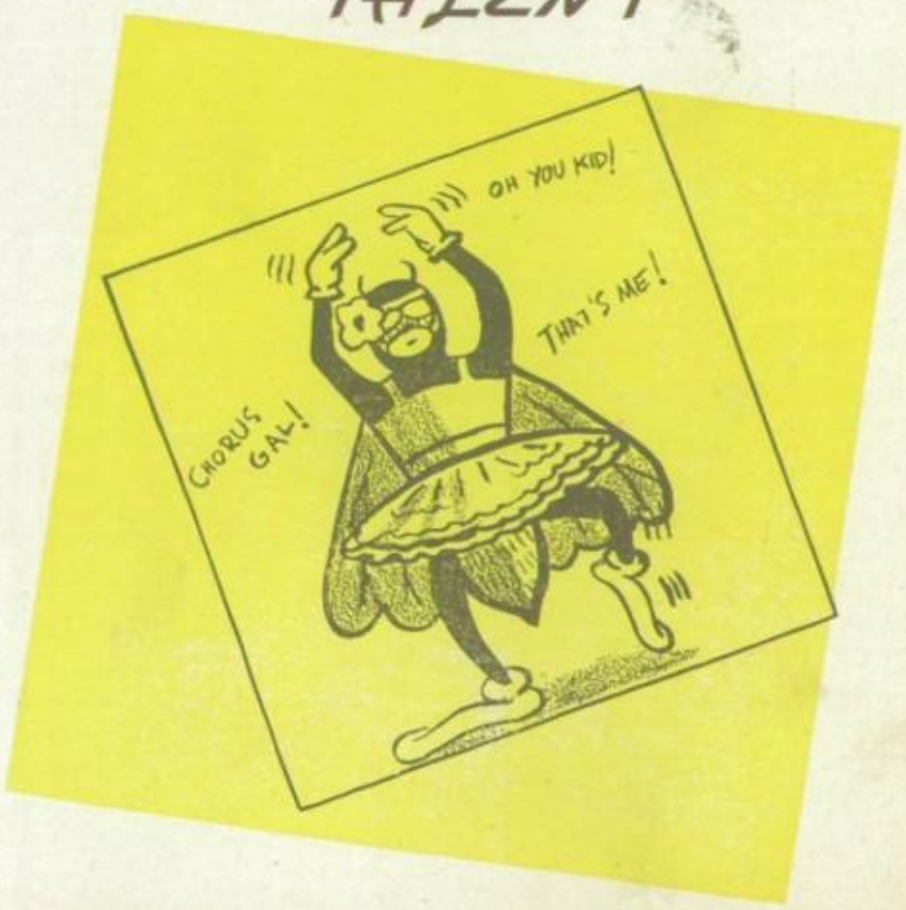
CONTENTS

Yeh, team! Fight! are familiar words that we yell when we look on pages 42-56.

HORNETS

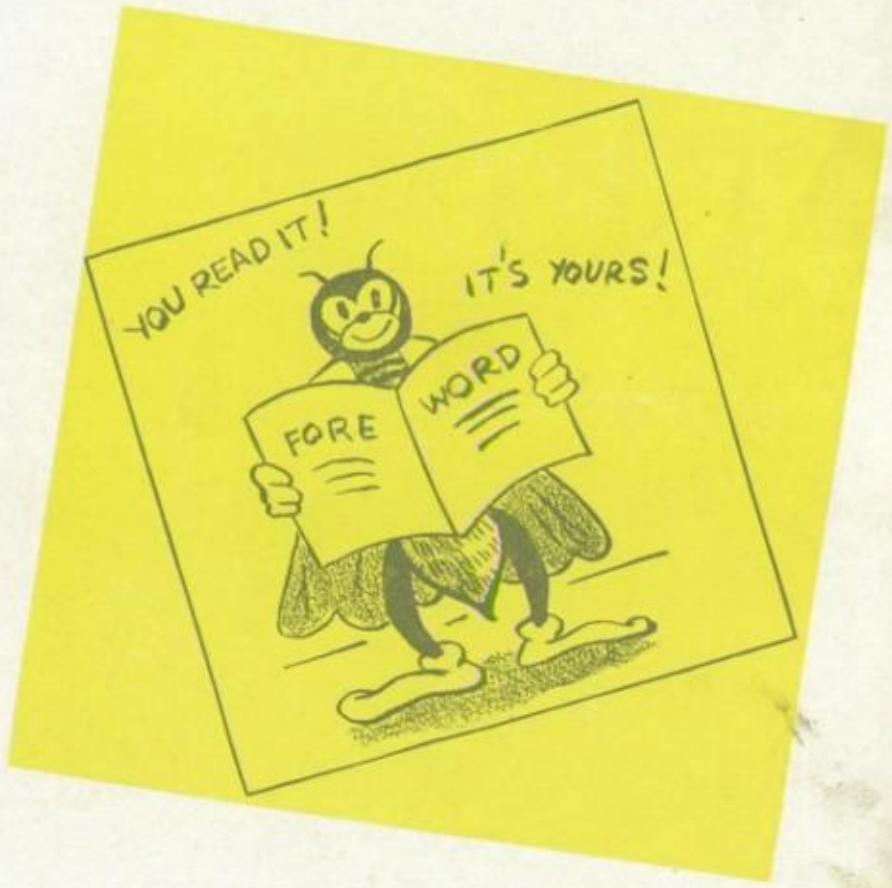
Life at school is enlivened by groups of gifted Howeites on pages 56-71.

TALENT



Last spring the Hilltopper staff came to me and asked ,"Howie, you've been here ever since Howe was started. Why don't you show everybody the school through the eyes of the 1945 yearbook?" I was glad to oblige; so here I am.

When I arrived at Howe in 1937, I was accompanied by an enthusiastic group of 450 pupils and 16 teachers. Now, I buzz around every day among 1383 pupils and 57 teachers. You see that we've really grown. One additional wing has been built to accommodate the ever-increasing number of Howeites, and another wing is being planned.



FOREWORD

Although new wartime courses have been added in the last four years, and programs have been speeded up so pupils can graduate early, Howe still has all those little things that make a real school, like crew cuts—"Joe" talk—silver hair clips—white cords—dirty saddles—Indian bracelets—locker gab-fests—and a wonderful school spirit.

This year my job is to try to show you all these things. I hope you will enjoy meeting us and learning about us here at Howe. But time's awastin'; so let's cut the preliminaries and get started.

AND NOW FOR A BEE'S-EYE VIEW

Mr. Donald Emery, as their adviser, talks with freshmen, Carol Arnholter, Bill Schmadeke, and Patricia Kossatz.

OF OUR CLASSROOMS AND TEACHERS

THREE R'S

ALONG EDUCATION'S BEE

We believe in looking ahead at Howe! Our main purpose here is to acquire knowledge that will help us in the future. In this, our fourth year at war, we are stressing the subjects that will prepare us for life in the post-war world. What do you say to wandering down the halls and seeing some of our pupils and teachers at work?

Ways and methods of tying up dangling participles and correcting split infinitives are being discussed by Mr. Seward S. Craig, English Department head, who chats with Miss Alice Hankins, Miss Ellen O'Drain, Miss Mary Smead, and Miss Ruth Zitzlaff, English teachers. A large number of interesting and varied courses have been incorporated into this department. Let me tell you about some of them.

The art room is always inviting. Let's stop a minute. There, over at the desk, are Miss Janet Keller and Mrs. Loreen DeWaard talking with art students, Adelle Porter and Lewis Wood. Everything is so interesting in this department! I wish we could stay a while, but we must buzz along as we have ten other departments to visit, you know.

Journalism, offered as a substitute for English V, prepares pupils for work on Howe publications. World Citizenship, a six weeks course of study in English VI, gives an opportunity for study of foreign countries. Future orators and actors get valuable help from our speech courses. Library courses are also offered under the English program. You can see that Howeites are given many opportunities to develop their special abilities in English.

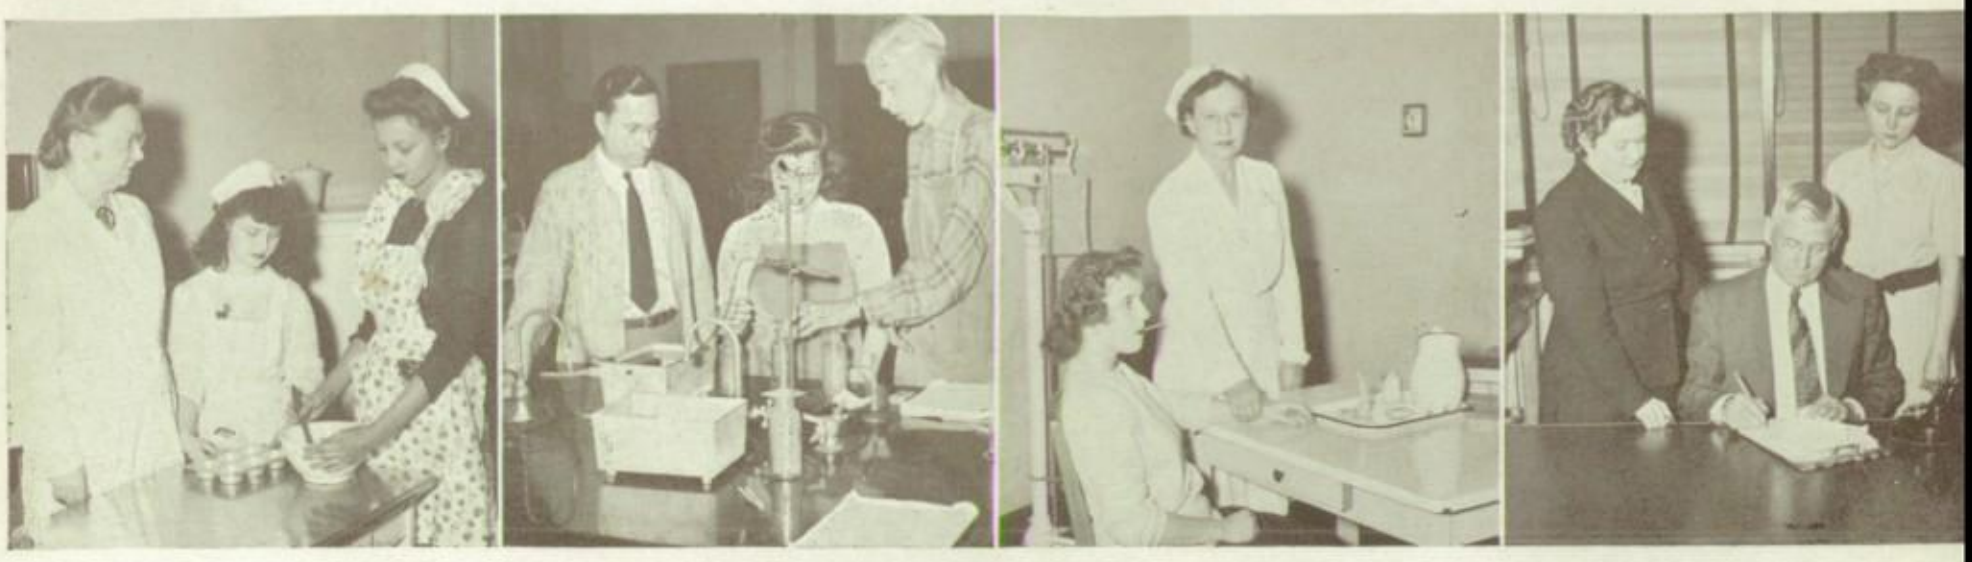
RINE TO GRADUATION

"Sign your name and home room here, please." Well, this must be the library. Yes, there's Miss Marjorie Schoch, our head librarian, helping Joyce Mottern check out a school library book. Gertrude Richart and Olive Garrett stand at the desk, while Mrs. Betty Baker, assistant librarian, looks through the card files.

Every time I go down to the Industrial Arts Department, I find something new and different. Yes, there's Mr. Dennis Wright and Mr. E. A. Patterson, shop teachers, helping Roy Virt and Gene McClarney with the game boards that they made for the Junior Red Cross. Besides this, the wood shop boys made ballot boxes for our mock election last fall.

Many of the books in the library have been contributed by our English classes during Book Week. Pupils interested in the library take a course in library practice. All the members of the class spend some time each day in the library working at the desk, answering questions, and checking out books. They also prepare new books for the shelves, and shelve and repair books.

The boys in the print shop make the tickets for all school dances and parties, in addition to most of the notices and blanks that keep the office running smoothly. I really don't know how we could get along without this department, because among other things our basketbali season tickets, our report cards, all the program cards, and play programs are printed here.



HOWEITES LEARN THROUGH

Over in the Home Economics Department, Mrs. Ruth Shepard helps Phyllis Wallace and Patricia Landrigan with a cooking lesson.

KHC"H"O", efflorescent substances, and other deep mysteries are as clear as crystal to Mr. Floyd Jeffries, chemistry teacher, who is trying to get the idea over to Barbara Myers and Carl Nieman.

Miss Celia Smith, school nurse, takes Jane Hodges' temperature. The clinic is open daily to all students.

Have you been wondering what kept the office clicking at top-rate speed? Mr. Clarence Clayton, vice-principal, with Miss Virginia Childers, secretary, and Mrs. Ruth Reed, clerk, can tell you all about it. Mrs. Joan Thompson, assistant clerk (not pictured), is a graduate of Howe and has returned to help in the office.

Keeping the students informed on history, government, and social problems—past, present, and future, is the task of the social studies teachers. Miss Dorotha Kirk confers with Jeanette Cassady and Norbert Carteaux on current problems. Mrs. Hattie Lou Winslow, Betty Sly, and Glenna Thompson discuss the functions of ancient and modern governments. Mr. Hartwell Kayler, Lois Brenn, and Lewis Brewer listen to special records on United States Government. Illustrating his point on the world globe to Jean Campbell and Bill Bowles is Mr. Kenneth Smartz.

The high-light of the social studies year is the mock election in the fall, which trains the present citizens of the State of Howe for their places as future citizens of the State of Indiana.

Well, what do you know? This must be the department that tells us how to make calculations. Of course! There's the familiar 4x+3x stuff and the shortest distance between two points. Many juniors and seniors, however, have delved into the study of the slide rule, the law of sines, and logarithms. If you don't understand all this, see Mrs. Lucy Jane Henry, who is showing Pat Sharp and Ralph Bennett how a simple formula may give one a straight line graph; Miss Mary McCord, who shows some solid geometry models to Tony George, Carlyn Bell, and Joan Dufour; Mr. W. W. Chambers, shwn explaining a tough problem to Donald Elbert and Maellen Wright; or Miss Betty Hall, who attempts to get across a theorem in plane geometry to Carol Pritchett and Bill Nevill.

Howe's future stenographers and typists, as well as those who want just practical business training, find what they want in the Commercial Department. Mrs. Margaret Rogofsky explains the mysteries of shorthand to Mary Jane Warriner. Donald Stuck and Shirley Diehl practice typing under the able direction of Mr. Sherman Pittenger. The art of keeping things straight—filing, in other words, is taught by Miss Ellen Jane LaFollette. Here she helps Pat Sloo and Dorothy Yoder with their filing problems. Mr. M. D. Williams is shown below with Betty Aldridge and Gene Cradick in a Junior Business class, which gives a general introduction to nearly every field of business.

These few pages give you an idea of what some of our teachers and pupils do. If your favorite teacher isn't pictured here, try looking in the clubs, activities, or athletic sections.

memo:
Rained first day of school
also rained last full day of school

To a swell kid and a swell class pal.
Margie Barnes.

THESE ARE THE "JOES" AND "JANES"

HORNETS

LEATHER LUGGERS WIN LAST ENCOUNTER

Our young footballers crashed into the victory column in the final game of the season to conquer the Lawrence Central Bears 26 to 0. The victory came after six straight defeats were handed to our Hornets in their second year of competition.

Captain Tony George led his team to a thrilling season climax, rambling over for two touchdowns and kicking two extra points to help bring the Brown and Gold out on top. Hardly was the first period half over, when George brought the crowd to its feet as he gathered up a Lawrence pass and scooted forty yards for a touchdown. Still not satisfied, George again went over a few minutes later from the eight, on a fake reverse. Three straight first downs had put the ball in scoring position. Then, a few minutes before the half, Weaver lugged the ball across from the eight. At the half Howe led 20 to 0. All things were not good, however. Two minutes of the third quarter were history, when Bob Stanfill, spunky little guard, suffered a broken leg, and had to be carried off the field. In the fourth period, Bob Baker took a long jaunt to pay dirt, but was called back for a backfield in motion penalty. The Hornets still didn't let up. A few minutes later Don Goodwin, substitute back, plowed through guard, got into the clear, and sped forty-two yards for Howe's final touchdown.

The Hornets opened the season, holding Pike Township to a 7-0 win. Pike went on through the season undefeated. Howe scored for the first time against the Silent Hoosiers, when fullback Bob Baker ended a long drive down the field, by going over from the eight. The Hoosiers still outscored the Hornets 14 to 6. Next, a big, fast, experienced Broad Ripple team, composed entirely of returning lettermen, had things pretty much their own way, winning 33 to 0. A late drive by Howe was stopped on the Ripple eight yard line after passes were completed to Harry Branson and Chuck Miller. A close game with Ben Davis followed with the verdict against Howe, 6 to 0. The Giants scored in the third quarter on a fourth down after the Hornet line had held for three downs. On October 20, the Hornets traveled to Southport for the initial night game in their short history, and although we suffered another defeat, surprised the heavily-favored Southport team holding them to an 18 to 0 score. Early in the second quarter, George intercepted a Cardinal pass on the Hornet 35 yard line, where the Brown and Gold commenced a drive, which took them within ten yards of the goal line. Here the big Southport forward wall held for downs. The next week at Warren Central saw our boys fall before the Warriors 18 to 0. Warren displayed a fine passing attack, scoring twice through the air. The Hornet eleven played one of their best games of the season, and had Warren Central's ground attack well stymied.

Many sophomores and juniors dotted the roster and gained valuable experience for future years. A fine freshman team also showed promise. With a few more season's experience under their belts, watch the Hornets go!

Our varsity quintet really proved itself to be a tournament team when it captured a four-team Holiday Invitational Tourney staged on the Howe court, and rode through to the finals in the Sectional meet at the season's end. The boys finished the regular season with a record of eight wins and ten losses.

OUR SHARE OF "HOOSIER HOOP-LA"

The Hornets were in good form in the Holiday Tourney as they knocked off Franklin in the afternoon game 37 to 24, and then came back at night to sock Columbus in the titular game by the score of 31 to 21 to run off with the championship trophy. Franklin defeated Martinsville in the other afternoon contest. In the final game our netmen trailed at the half 15 to 14, but put on the steam in the third and final quarters to put the game on ice.

The Brown and Gold were handicapped by player losses during the season. Arnold Koehler, husky 6 foot 4 inch center, was called to duty in the Navy early in January and took with him much-needed height. Then two weeks before Sectional time, Bob Bennett, aggressive forward, bid farewell to his teammates and left for the Navy. As a result there were frequent changes in the lineup, and our boys weren't able to get settled.

Ed Locklear finished the season with a total of 157 points to lead his team's scoring. Following Ed were Max Fullen who potted 137 markers, and Ed Broden who cashed in for 126 points. Bob Bennett and Arnold Koehler hit the draperies for 107 and 69 points in 16 and 11 games, respectively. Carl Edwards came within two points of tying the Howe scoring record for one game when he swished the nets for 22 points in the Beech Grove fray. Entering midway in the second period, Carl rimmed four points befor the intermission. In the last half, Edwards caught fire and piled up 18 points to total 22 for the game. The record is 24 points set by Bob Banks last year.

For the third consecutive year Howe's Hornet hoopers fought their way to the final game of the Indianapolis Sectional Basketball Tourney. A hard-driving Broad Ripple five, however, wrested the title from Howe's defending champs in the finale, 41-23.

It was Hornets versus Hornets in Howe's first Sectional game and the Brown and Gold led at all posts to beat the Beech Grove aggregation, 38-33. The Gilfoy boys followed this up with a rousing 53-30 thumping of Decatur Central, the soundest drubbing in an unusual tourney of close games. Everyone took a share in the victory as the Hornets amassed 33 points in the second half.

Revenge was sweet as the Brown and Gold stopped Warren Central in the semi-final encounter, 40-34, a team which beat them in regular season play. The Hornets met their Waterloo in the form of ten sizzling Rockets from the banks of White River as Broad Ripple stopped them cold and became new sectional champs.

Howe retained some glory as Ed Broden won runner-up honors for the sectional individual scoring mark with 38 points, and Ed Locklear with 36 points was named on the all-sectional team.

Hugh Moreillon grabs a rebound, much to Franklin cager's disgust, as Ed Locklear moves in.

RESERVES AND FROSH HAVE GOOD SEASON

The Hornet reserves fared a little better than their varsity "big brothers." After dropping their first 3 games, Coach Wathen D. Leasor's boys went to work and ended their season with 11 victories and 6 setbacks. Against city competition they had a record of 4 triumphs and 3 losses. Big Tom Woerner led the reserve point-getters as he collected 94 markers. Not far behind came Darrell Springer and Don Goodwin with 53 points apiece. Team totals show- e that the "B" team outscored their opposition 404-315.

Our freshmen were undisputed city champs this year as Coach Ray Bowman guided his yearlings to 11 victories in 12 starts in city series competition and 17 out of 18 for the season. Johnny Edwards paced the frosh in scoring as he hit the hoop for 117 points, and not far behind came Jim Stutz with 103. The team total was 248 as compared to 162 for the opponents, in city series games only.

RIGHT—Speedster Bill Watson breaks the tape in the century with Jim Hill a step behind.

HEELS TO TOUGH OPPOSITION . . .

The Hornet thinly-clads, carrying but three seniors on the squad, came through with four victories while losing four in dual meets, for a 500 percentage but fell to fifth in the City Meet and fourth in the Sectional Meet. However, nine returning lettermen gav a bright outlook for the 1945 team.

Our spikesters romped over their first three opponents, Ben Davis, Broad Ripple, and Southport, all by good margins, but then fell down before the tough Manual and Shortridge runners. Deciding they had had enough of this sort, the boys hit the victory trail again as they showed their heels to the Bears of Lawrence Central, but still hadn't quite enough speed for the state's second strongest team, Washington of Indianapolis.

The City Meet rolled around and went into the records with Howe failing to get a blue ribbon. But for a bit of bad luck, Bill Watson would have taken the honor in the 200 yard low hurdles. Bill was leading by a good margin but tripped over the last hurdle leaving Bob Beam of Shortridge to break the tape.

In the Sectionals, we qualified three boys for the State Meet, while racking up fourth honors in team standings. The trio was led by Watson, who won the 200 yard low hurdle Sectional title. His teammates were hurdler Doug Smith, and half-miler Max Fullen. It was Fullen's second consecutive year of qualification, with yet another season of eligibility. Bob Schatz, also a junior, missed by one place of qualification, as he put the shot far enough for third place. The winner and runner-up in individual events go to the State Meet. Howe earned three points in the State, the most so far, through the outstanding work of Bill Watson, Howe's greatest trackman, who sped to a third in the 200 yard low hurdles. Other outstanding performers during the regular season were Keith Carmack, Roland Swingley, Jack Nugent, and Dave DeWitte.

Howe, 83 2/3	Ben Davis, 33 1/3
Howe, 63	Broad Ripple, 49
Howe, 72 1/3	Southport, 36 2/3
Howe, 40	Manual, 76
Howe, 37 1/2	Shortridge, 61 1/2
Howe, 73	Lawrence Central, 62 (forfeit)
Howe, 27	Washington, 82
Howe, 61 2/3	Warren Central, 71 1/3

OVER HILL, OVER DALE

Our hill and dalers really put on the steam this year. In dual meets ,the Hornets went to the post seven times, and seven times they romped off with top honors. This under their belts, the Brown and Gold stepped to runner-up honors behind Tech, in the City Invitational Meet, held on the Howe course. The team was followed by Shortridge and Manual, in that order. Hornet Dave DeWitte broke the tape in front of the field. His time for the two mile course was 10:13:3, just eight tenths of a second behind the record set last year by Paul Stoyonovich of Manual. The places of other boys running for Howe were: Wilbur Burdsall, a freshman, 12th; George Harris, 13th; Russel Corey, 17th; and Jim Cook, 18th.

In the regular season, Lawrence Central, Broad Ripple. Shortridge, Tech, and Washington fell prey once, and Manual twice, to the superiority of the Howe striders. Our only defeat came at the hands of Anderson, one of the outstanding teams in the state, in a triangular meet. Coach Ray Bowman's charges still outstepped Warren Central in the battle for second place. In the City Invitational Meet held on the Howe course, Tech totaled 36 points and Howe 61.* Shortridge's 65 points were good enough for third place, and they were followed by Manual who needed 125 markers.

*Low score wins.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

BACK ROW—Jack Nugent, Robert Hudson, Bob Stuck, Wilbur Burdsall, Russell Corey, Donald Adams, Joe Hallinin, student manager.

HAIL, KINGS OF SWING

The best golf team in Howe history was the classification given to the 1944 links squad at the season's end. Our golfers hit their peak of the victorious season in the City-County Invitational Tourney at the Sarah Shank course, when they thumped four teams: Tech, Cathedral, Lawrence Central, and Shortridge, in that order. The Howe foursome accomplished this feat with a low score total of 314 strokes, the lowest team total in Howe history and one of the lowest ever recorded in Indiana high school golf. This number was good enough to beat second place Tech by twenty-eight strokes. The Hornets were led by undefeated Arnold Koehler, the outstanding golfer in Indiana high school ranks, who fired a 72. The other members of the foursome were Bob Rochford, Bob Stanfill, and Ed Broden.

Previously the Brown and Gold linksmen had turned back Lawrence Central, Cathedral, and Shortridge twice, Tech and Ben Davis, once, and had captured a quadrangular meet with Kokomo, Anderson and Tech. Coach Fred C. Lemley's strokers met defeat for the first time in the final meet of the season. In a four way meet at the Meridian Hill Country Club, Richmond took top laurels, followed by Tech, Howe and Shortridge, respectively.

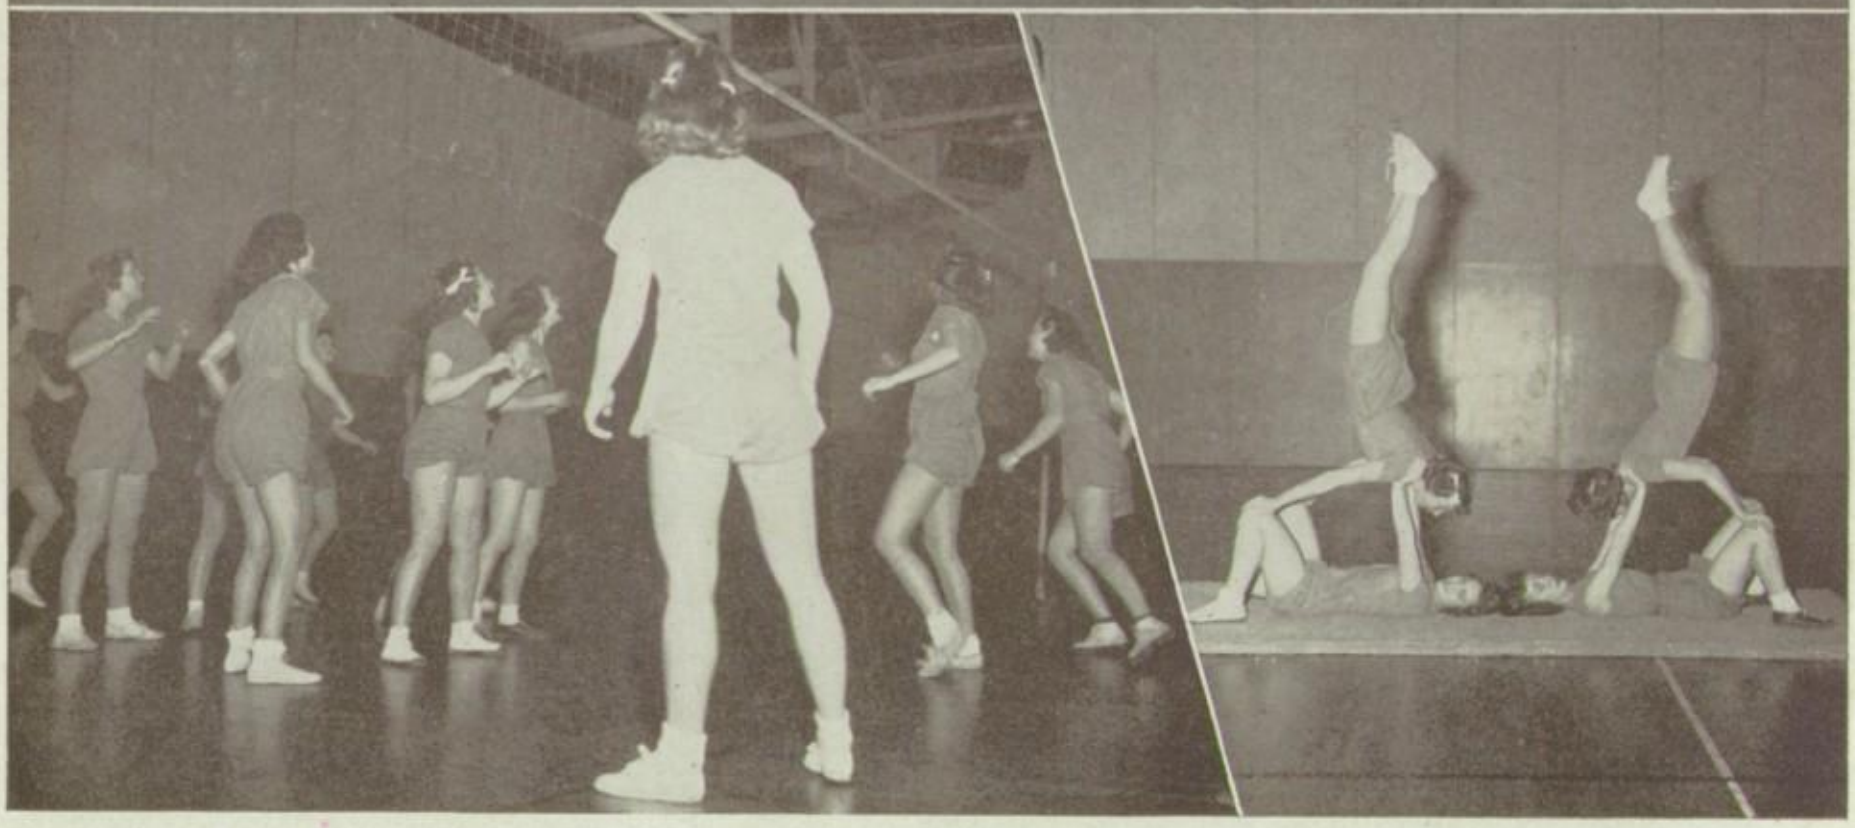
FRONT ROW—Patty Andrews, Marilyn Dougherty, Elizabeth Schmidt, Frances Harreld, Marilyn La Porte, Elaine Decker, Pat Gallagher, Pat Miller, Marcia Peirce, Marjorie La Rue.

COME ON BROWN, COME ON GOLD! FIGHT!

All of those guys who walk around the halls with their heads in the skies and with big block H's on their sweaters (swoon) make up the Lettermen's club. These he-men set the standards for athletics at Howe. Once a year they put on a dance with the G.A.A.

One, two, three! Yeh, rah, cheerleaders! These gay Howeites with their amazing stunts, flips, and loud yells, really keep us on our toes cheering for the team.



G. A. A.

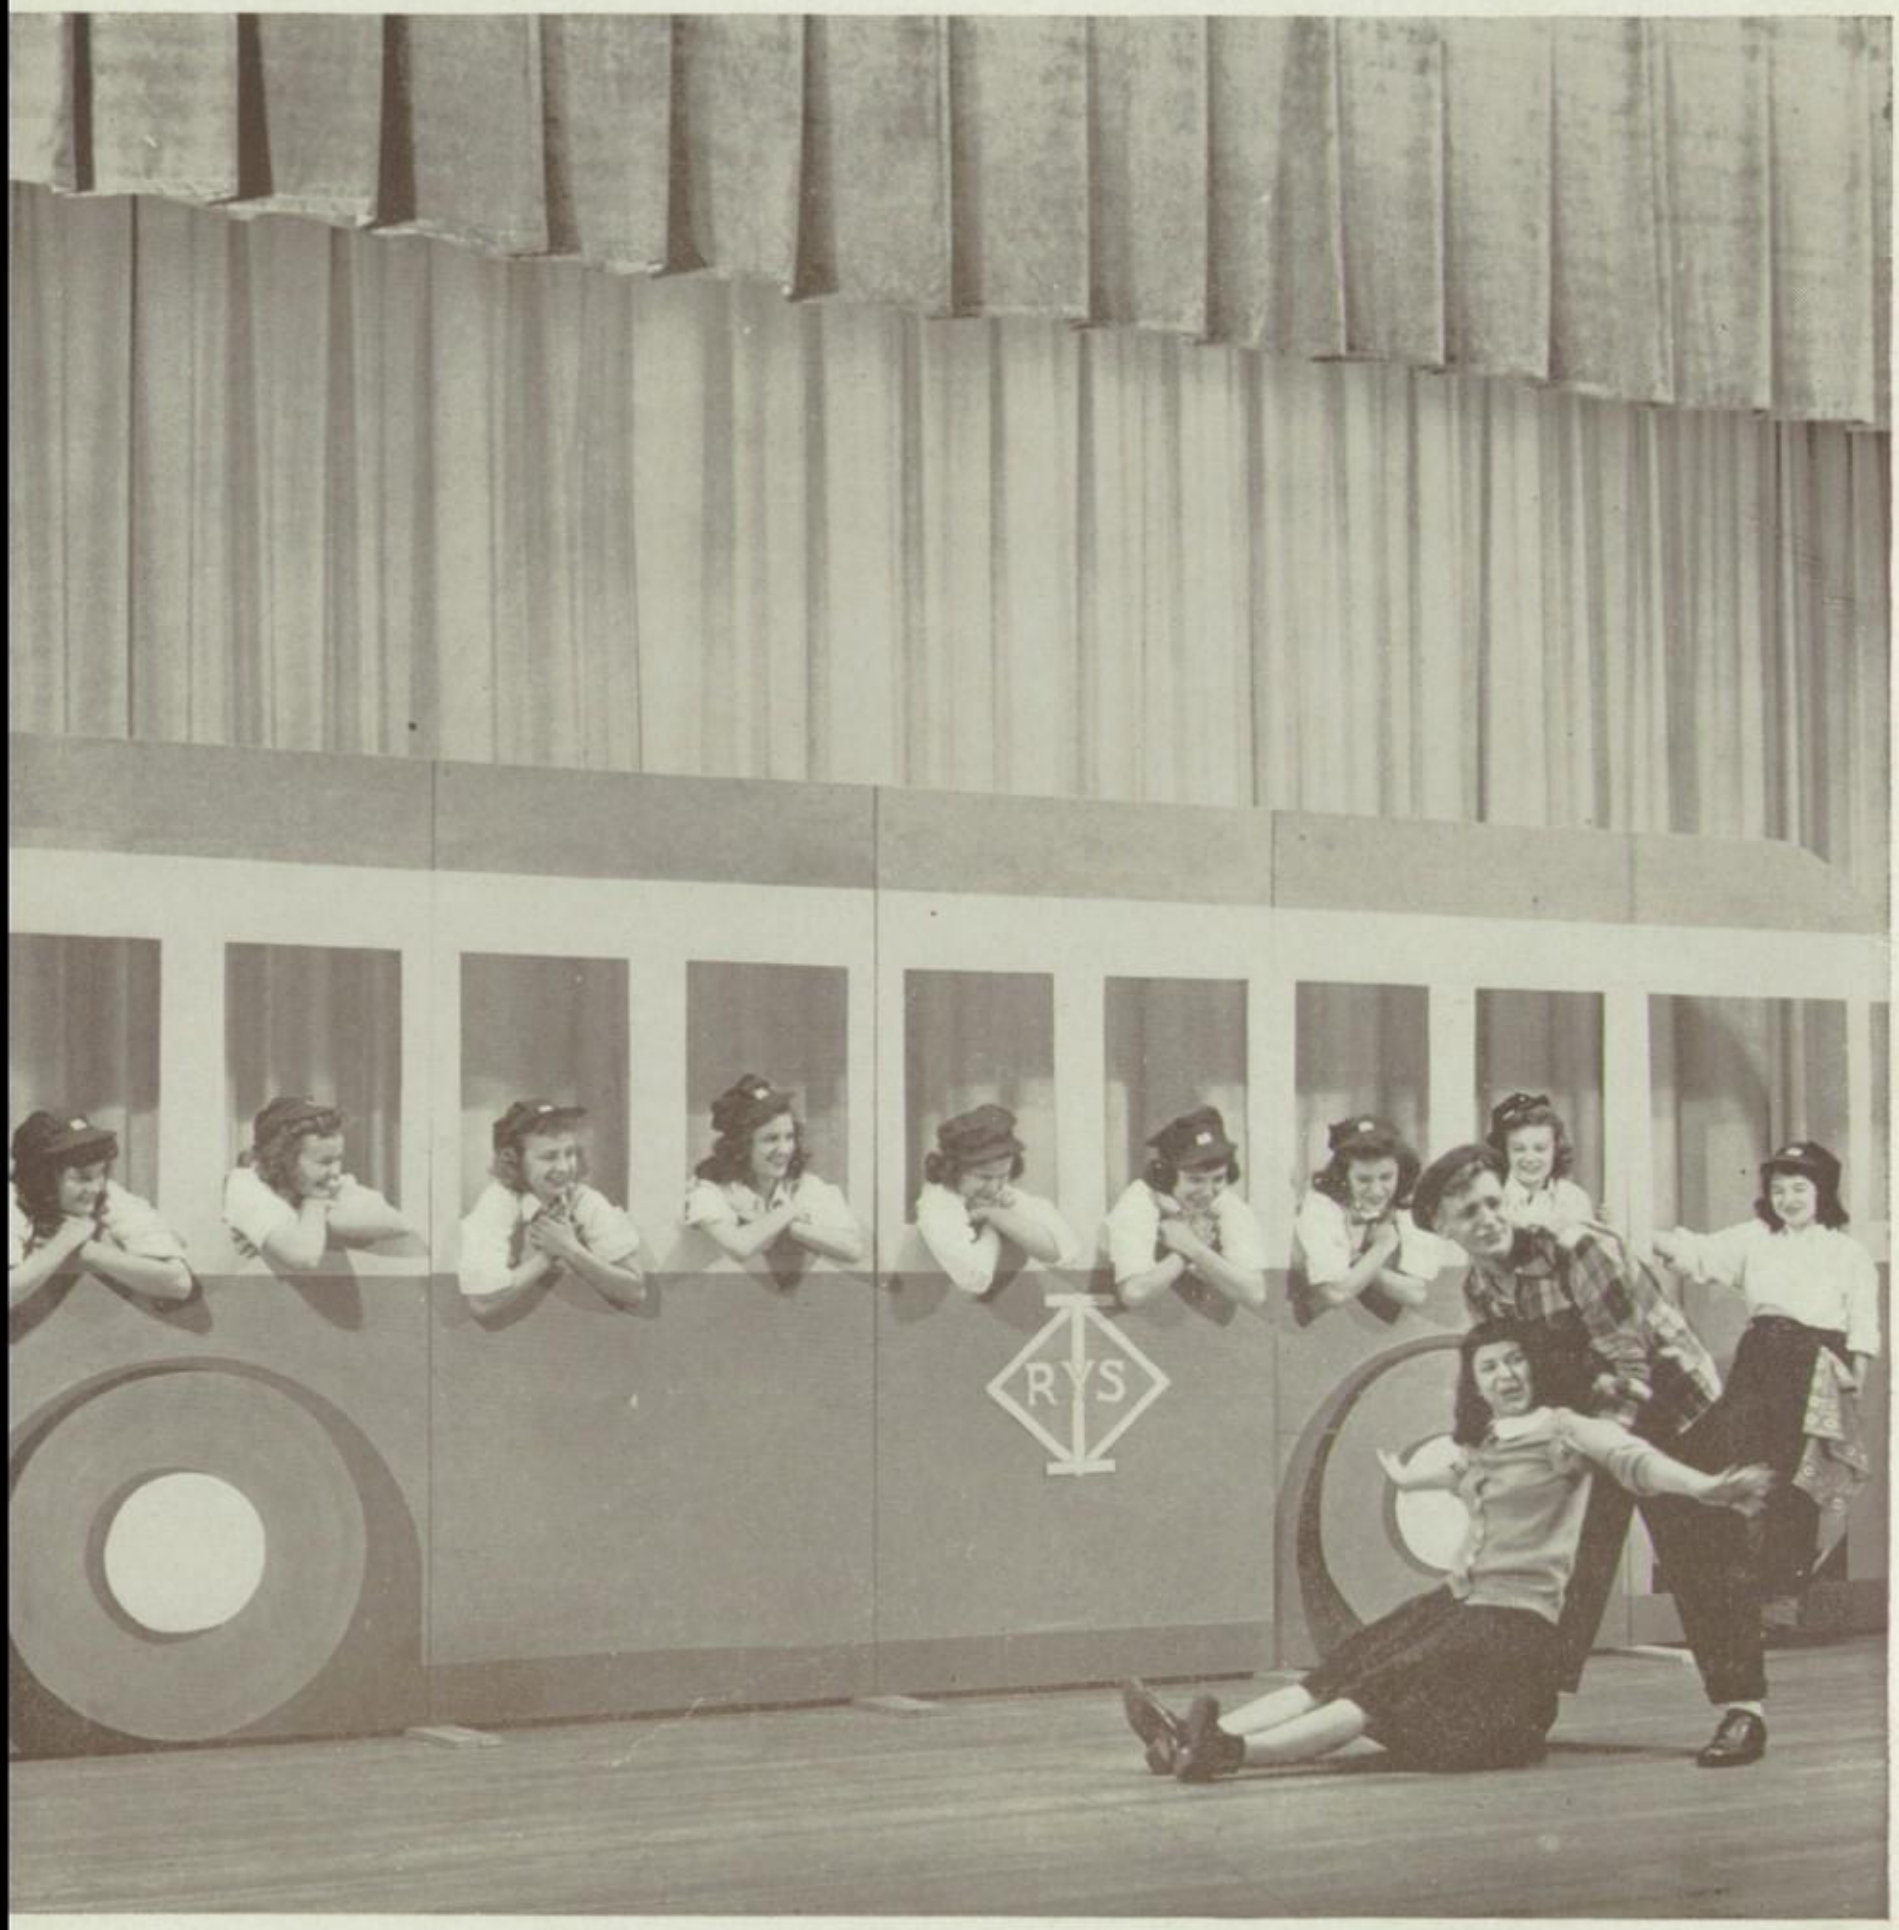
WHO SAID "THE WEAKER SEX"?

Jeepers! Check all the feminine athletes! My instincts tell me this must be a meeting of the Girls Athletic Association. Boy, these G. A. A. gals are really on the beam when it comes to skill on the side horse and parallel bars. And as for basketball and ping-pong—well, need I say more? I hear they participate in gobs of outdoor sports too. From here on in, I won't be a bit surprised to see these members of the fairer sex invading our track and baseball field.

ALL WORK AND NO PLAY? NO

In this scene from the Trolley Act of the Pleasant Run Revue, Joe Foerderer catches Josephine Justice as the Trolley Girls watch the fun.



US! WE'RE HUMMING WITH FUN!

MEET HOWE'S GARBOS AND GABLES

High-lighting Howe's history have been the productions of these young actors and actresses, under the direction of Mr. Darrell H. Gooch, club sponsor. Back in 1941, the Footlight Revelers gave three one-act plays; the next year, "Our Town." The '43 drama was "The Night of January 16th"; last year's, "Letters to Lucerne." This spring the presentation was "Little Women."

HI, JOE, WHAT'S THE SHOW?

The audience is hushed; the lights are dimmed; and, lo and behold, we get to see a movie right here in the hive itself. It's just like the neighborhood theater except that all the films pertain to some class subject which becomes more interesting and understandable, thanks to the pictures. And to think all this was started by the purchase of a movie projector and screen by the 400 Club in 1939. The students who volunteered to run the machine formed the first Audio-Visual Club which has been steadily growing. Today, managed by Mr. Virgil Heniser, the Howe movie theater has many patrons.

AUDIO-VISUAL CLUB

STANDING — Jack Johns, Bill Nevill, Harold Timberman, Melvin Skinner, Billy Galbreath, Mr. Virgil Heniser, Don Horner, Jim Purvis Karl Stoneking, Alex McMaster Carl Spiess.

SITTING—John Marquis, Gladys Ferguson, Bob Bakemeier, Don Williams, Alice Wickizer, Mary Mock.

WHAT'S COOKIN', GOOD LOOKIN'?

It certainly smells delicious. Is it some cookies to fill the jars at the USO or preparation for one of the charming teas? It could be either, for the Home Economics Club members, with the help of head chef, Miss Lois Coy, are experts at both these things. In addition, they made the adorable stuffed animals that you see them holding in the picture. These furnished much enjoyment for the children in the Indianapolis Day Nursery. I've also heard about the interesting excursions to a dairy and an ice cream factory. Capable homemakers are on the way!!

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

BACK ROW—Margaret Overman Carol Engleman, Johanne Guenter Sally Emmert, Joan Ritzi, Mary Ann Brown, Mary Ellen James Jean Hickerson, Ethlyn Henderson June Melton, Geraldine Bender.

SECOND ROW—Delores Altom Patti Cummings, Donita Stobaugh Louise Steffanni, Mary Ann Malott Miss Lois Coy, Jo Ann Marquis Ama Rea Murray, Margie Lowdermilk, Carolyn Shoemaker, Betty Baker, Suzanne Shortridge, Margie Joslin.

GREETINGS, MICROBE HUNTERS!

Can we pry these scientists away from their microscopes long enough to learn what they and their chief lab technician, Mr. Paul Klinge, do? We've heard they delve deep into such scientific subjects as qualitative analysis and insect classification, and learn of the complicated equipment involved. Each member tackles a special phase of science, such as modeling plaster biological specimens, taking blood count, or analyzing good old terra firma. Although these projects sound complex, they furnish valuable "info" that will be useful in the future. Hats off to them!

¿HO! CATILINA, PERFIDUS

Drama in the Roman way! That's what these actors and actresses presented to all the Latin students in the hive at an assembly 'specially for this purpose. Under the direction of Miss Narcie Pollitt, they brought to life "The Traitor of 63 B.C." To add to the realistic effect, part-Latin dialogue was used and very authentic-looking costumes were made and worn by the players.

LATIN PLAY

STANDING—Elliott Jose, Dick Cotton, Jim Denny, Jack McCormick, Norbert Carteaux, Russell Corey, Bill Insley, Elay Stevens Alan Gise.
SITTING—Marjorie Gilmore, Ruth Ann Thomas.
INSET—Senor Howie Hornet.

¡HOLA! ¿CÓMO ESTÁN?

Are you hep to the posada and pinata? Do you know that they are Spanish Christmas customs which are observed by these Spanish Club members? First they go from room to room asking for admittance until the correct room is reached, where the pinata is celebrated by breaking a jar containing delicacies, which are then shared by all. The club, at its student-planned programs, studies Spanish music, food, and customs, and presents conversational skits. You can see that, besides having fun, these kids learn a thing or two.

BONJOUR! COMMENT ALLEZ-VOUS?

You can't catch me. I know those strange words mean "Good day! How are you?" 'cause, you see, I go to the French Conversation Club meetings. Besides learning useful French phrases, I also get a line or two on some Parisian customs and play French records on the "vic." Since there are no regular classes to teach this language, Mesdemoiselles Narcie Pollitt and Marthanna McWhir took over the job of introducing French to Howe by organizing this new club. A club Christmas party climaxed the year, affording much fun for all.

SALVETE, AMICI!

Latin to me had always been a dead language—that is ,until it was brought to life for me by the Latin Club. Now, I'm convinced that the Romans really weren't such bad fellas 'cause at club meetings we did many things they used to do and had heaps of fun. We sang their songs and played their games, and, when Christmas time rolled around, we celebrated the Roman holiday of that season, the Sturnalia. What a bang-up time we had, with food, a floor show, and all the trimmings. All this helps me in my Latin classes, too. Caesar! That's me!

TAKE YOUR CHOICE, GIRLS!

When it comes to Hi-Y Clubs, Howe really has the cream of the crop. It is one of the few schools in the county to sponsor two of them, and, of course, both are affiliated with the National Y.M.C.A. For the underclassmen there's the Beta Hi-Y, the newest thing in fellas' clubs in our hive. Directed by Mr. Paul Klinge, this group has great plans for the coming year.

BETA HI-Y CLUB

WHO SAID "NO MEN"?

And here are the big-time Hi-Y boys, "Doc" Heniser's upperclassmen. It's their desire to "create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character" and very successful they are, too, in carrying out this objective. They keep an up-to-date list of Howe alumni in service and mail HOWE TOWERS to them. Each year a philosopher is elected from their midst for the May Pageant. They sponsor a dance annually, honoring their Hi-Y sweetheart, who is chosen from five girls selected by the boys. See why we're proud of our Hi-Y clubs?

NOW IT'S YOUR TURN, BOYS

Take a gander at these good-looking chicks! They're the members of the Vihota Club, the junior girls at Howe. Perhaps you are wondering how this organization acquired its mysterious name; so I'll tell you the secret. The name stands for the words "Violets of Howe Tower," and that's just what these girls are. Every year a Violet Queen is chosen from among their number to reign over the annual May Pageant of Youthful Achievement. This girl, chosen by the student body from five candidates, is crowned in an impressive ceremony on Violet Hill.

VIHOTA CLUB, A-L

MORE OF THE SAME

Many other activities are also carried on by this club. Each year they give an all-girl party to acquaint feminine Howeites with one another. Their real purpose, however, is to serve the school, which they do by checking lunch passes, assisting in the office, welcoming new girls, and sponsoring a posture contest for the club members. Each fall new junior girls take their place in the Vihota Club and are formally initiated by the out-going president and welcomed by the sponsor, Mrs. Mildred Loew. They are then members of one of the most important Howe organizations.

Did you know that one equals two? Falacy proofs are among the things studied by these mathematicians, who also delve deeply into navigation, projectiles, story problems, and computation short-cuts. They're just Einsteins in the making!

THERE'S MUSIC IN THE AIR . . .

The choir was organized at the beginning of Howe's first year, and although it was small at the time, it has grown steadily until it has reached the present enrollment of approximately seventy pupils, all under the direction of Mr. Frank S. Watkins. A bit of Bach mingled with a dash of the good old American "swing" creates a variety of music which is lovely to hear.

The choir has sung for many programs given at different places in the city and for almost all of our school assemblies. They sang the popular "Oklahoma!" and other selections in the Pleasant Run Revue, and at Christmas time they presented a program of Christmas music at an assembly for the entire school. They also participated in mid-year commencement exercises and a special St. Valentine's Day program.

Pupils who wish to become members of the choir must first pass a vocal test. In this way the best voices in school are selected.

Josephine Bailey is the accompanist, and Margaret Goldsmith is her assistant.

IN THE SWING OF IT . . .

Prospective Nelson Eddys and Jeannette MacDonalds, under the direction of Mr. Frank S. Watkins, compose the vocal ensembles. When all these lads and lassies get together, the results are well worth listening to. Their favorite arrangements are anything from "Begin the Beguine" to "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and whether they're singing the classics or modern swing makes no difference—it all sounds good.

The ensembles have often sung at different churches around the city, and for the Masonic Lodge. On Christmas Eve they carolled from the steps of the Monument Circle.

Left, right, left, right—with batons flashing, white boots gleaming, the drum majorettes strut down the gym floor to the tune of a lively march played by the band. Then, as the "Star Spangled Banner" rings forth, they stand gravely at attention, saluting the flag until the last strains of our national anthem tremble into stillness. When the ceremonies are over, the band again breaks into a rousing tune, and the majorettes, again twirling their silver batons, swing down the floor in time to the steady rhythm. These high-stepping Howeites are an added attraction to many of our basketball games. Mr. Robert Burford is their sponsor.

MUSIC, MAESTRO, PLEASE . . .

Mr. Robert Burford, new band master and orchestra leader at Howe, has been keeping thinks right in tune. The entire band has played at the football and basketball games. Its lilting music has brightened many of our assemblies and special programs.

When it came time for the Pleasant Run Revue, Howe's biennial talent show, pupils from the dance band and orchestra provided the music, which was as hep as Fred Waring's—well, almost. The orchestra occasionally plays for assembly programs and always shares honors with the rest of the music department in the annual May Music Festival. Music by the orchestra is one of the high lights of June Commencement.

POWER OF THE PRESS . . .

The door in the upper hallway with HOWE TOWER marked on it was a deep, dark mystery to me for so long, that one day my curiosity got the best of me, and I bravely invaded the "inner sanctum." Imagine my embarrassment when I reached the top of the steps, to discover that I had very boldly walked in on a HOWE TOWER Staff I meeting! The editor-in-chief, however, being a very agreeable fellow, told me that I might stay a while; so I buzzed over to a far corner of the room and listened as all the page editors and reporters discussed the next issue of the HOWE TOWER, our school paper. I noticed that as the editor spoke, a young woman would occasionally lean forward to add a word of advice or warning, and upon questioning the person sitting next to me, I learned that she is Miss Betty L. Williams, sponsor of the HOWE TOWER and Cub Club. This talkative fellow also told me that the Cub Club is composed of representatives from the freshman and sophomore English classes, who are assigned to report news of their fellow classmates.

After the meeting was over and I was about to leave, I happened to glance over my shoulder, and I discovered that a few people still remained, busily working at one of the tables. Reluctant to miss anything, I wandered over to them and asked what they were doing. They took time out to explain that they are the staff of the NEWS BUREAU, and that it is their job to see that news of the latest happenings at Howe reaches the city and community newspapers. In the picture on the opposite page, they are: Roland Swingley, correspondent to the News; Roy Horton, correspondent to the Times; Melvin Skinner, correspondent to the Star; Patty Lou Brown, correspondent to the Irvington Review; Virginia Ritzi, correspondent to the Herald; Sara Palmer, correspondent to the East Side Journal; Judy Johnston, correspondent to the Star; Jim Cook, correspondent to the Times.

My curiosity satisfied at last, I walked slowly down the steps and pushed open the hallway door—the door marked HOWE TOWER. I spend a lot of time up in the TOWER, now that I'm acquainted with everyone, and we really have lots of fun!

Now that you've seen most of the book, you're probably wondering how it was put together and who did the putting. Since I spent most of my spare time in the Hilltopper room, I'm just the person to tell you all about the staff and the '45 yearbook. Last spring, the newly organized staff met to decide on the theme for this book. They had practically given up hope, as no one had a good idea, and then . . . I buzzed up the circular stairs. What a break for the staff, even if I do say so myself! By June, the general plans for the book were made, and by last September, the working plans were completed. Bob O'Neel, staff cartoonist, really did himself proud with my pictures. Barbara Williams and Shirley Cloud, make-up editors, and Anne Clark and Mary Ann Elliott, their assistants, were seen constantly armed with paper cutter, rubber cement, and grease pencils. This all boils down to the fact that they spent most of their time cutting and mounting pictures. Who won what, where, when, and why, were the questions that Bob Kennelly had to answer when he wrote his sports copy. I never miss a Howe game, so I helped him a little, and Jim Cook added the finishing touches. Joanne Woods, club editor, had to arrange for the making of all the pictures in her section. Each frosh, soph, and junior Howeite was able to display his grinning countenance in Joan Meininger's homeroom section. Phyllis Pettijohn, activities editor, showed everyone the things that we do here at Howe. Ah, seniors! Margaret Rennoe's senior section made me wish that I were a senior. Betty Insley, editor-in-chief, and Carol Simmons, associate editor, spent the entire year writing the introductory section, and sticking their fingers into nearly every other thing that came along. Balancing the budget was the big problem of Roland Swingley, business manager, and his assistant, Joe Foerderer. Such was the life of the Hilltopper staff.

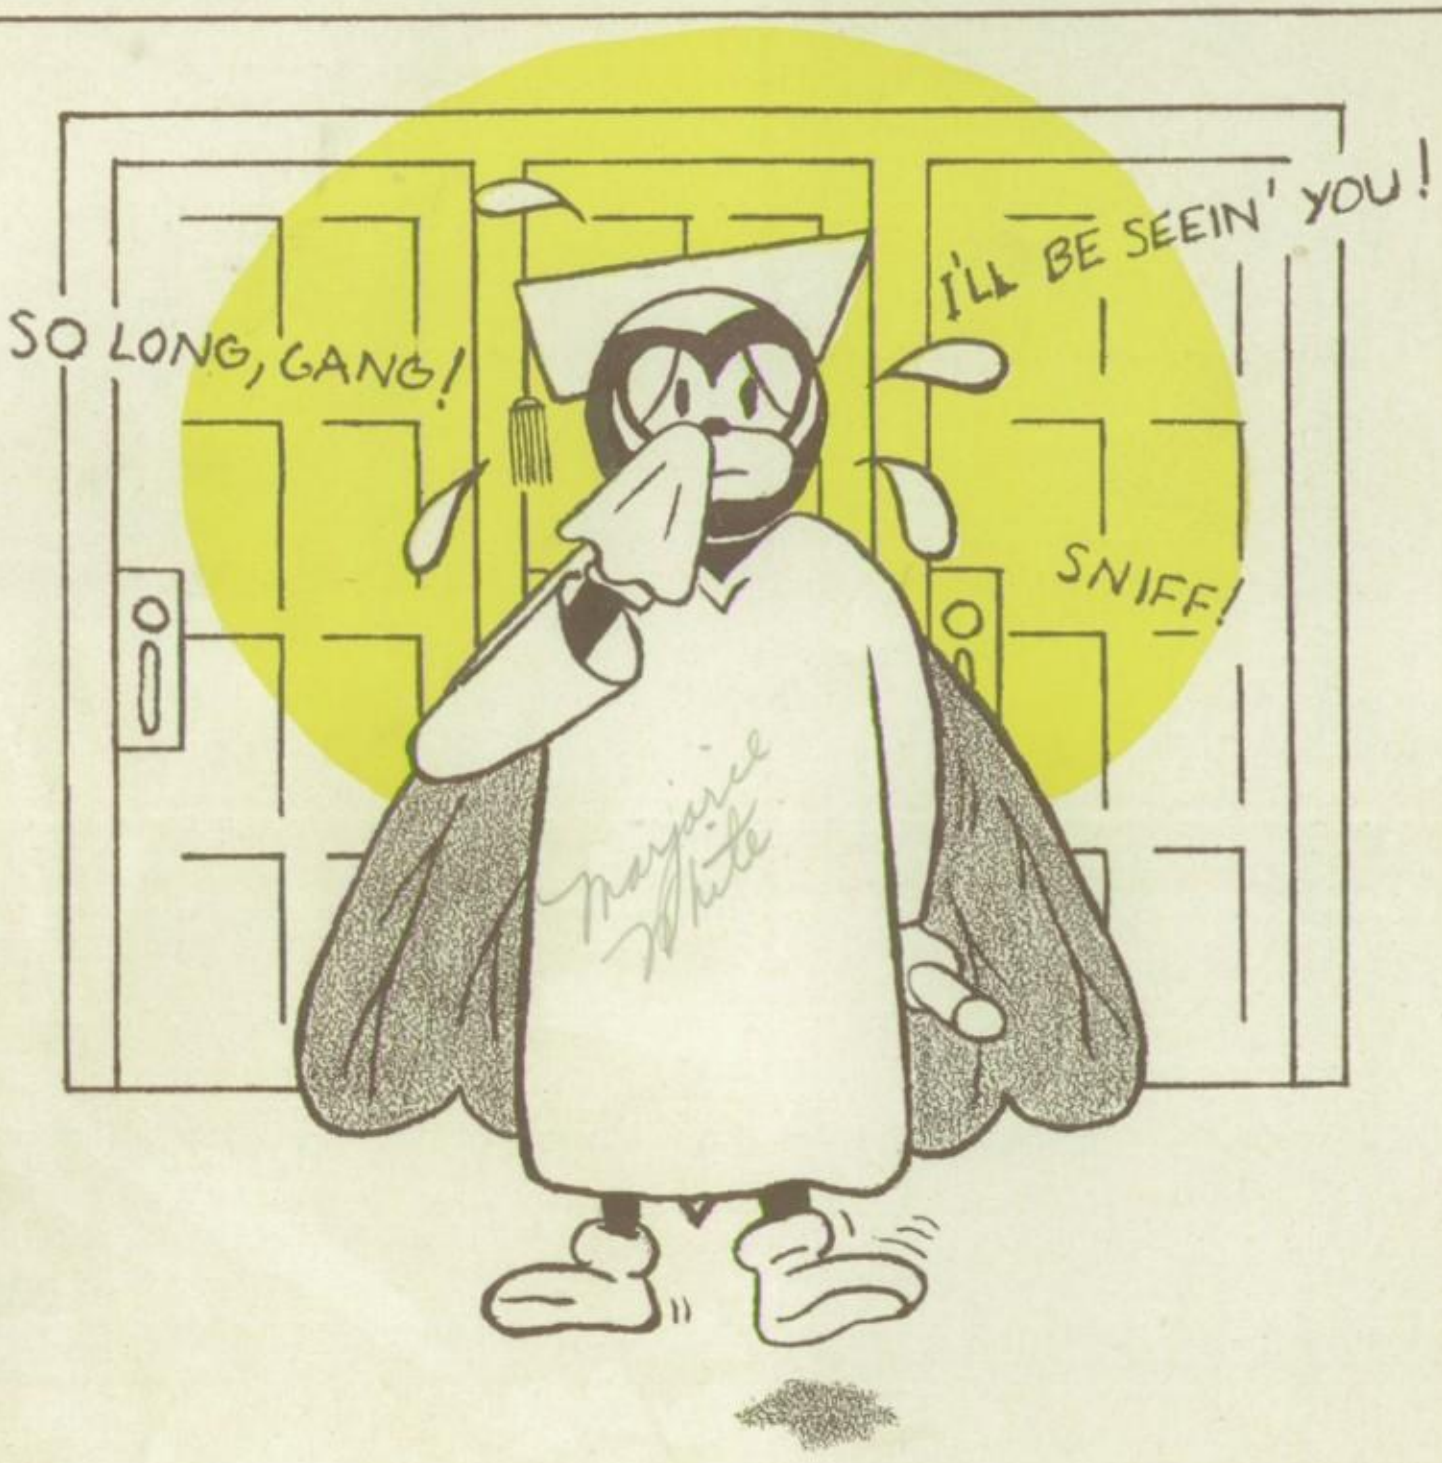
SO LONG!

THOMAS SARR HOWE



It has been fun showing you around Howe. You can tell by the expression on my face that I don't want to leave you. Every year I'm dressed in cap and gown so I can say goodbye to the seniors. I'm not ever leaving; so drop around next year and pay me a visit. I'll be glad to see you.

Until then, your busy buzzer,

Howie Hornet
